

ALBRECHT DR 56 C

The Albrecht DR 56 C car radio adapter is the first digital radio adapter for the car radio with full-screen colour display. It is very easy to retrofit your existing car radio with DAB+ digital radio: simply install the adapter on the windscreen with the included suction cup holder, lay the antenna and start a station search. Nothing stands in the way of digital radio enjoyment in the car. In addition, you can also connect your smartphone to the Albrecht DR 56 C and then take phone calls or play music from your smartphone via the car radio.
